(This form must be completed by CIBT staff or its authorized representative after interviewing prospective student)

Form 02

Applicant's Name

Date of Birth

Please write your comments in the text box provided based on your observation during an interview with the applicant.

1. The applicant's potential circumstances in Australia:

In considering the applicant's potential circumstances in Australia, you MUST consider the following factors:

- a. The applicant's ties with Australia which would present as a strong incentive to remain in Australia.
This may include family and community ties.

- b. Evidence that the Student visa program is being used to circumvent the intentions of the migration program.

- c. Whether the Student visa is being used to maintain ongoing residence.

- d. Whether the primary and secondary applicant(s) have entered into a relationship of concern for Student visa purposes. Where it has been determined that an applicant and dependant have contrived their relationship for Student visa purposes, both applicants do not satisfy the genuine temporary entrant criterion.

- e. The applicant's knowledge of living in Australia and their intended course of study and the associated education provider; including previous study and qualifications, what is a realistic level of knowledge an applicant could be expected to know and the level of research the applicant has undertaken into their proposed course of study and living arrangements.

2. Value of the course to the applicant's future :

You MUST consider the following factors in considering the value of the course to the applicant's future:

- a. Whether the student is seeking to undertake a course that is consistent with their current level of education and whether the course will assist the applicant to obtain employment or improve employment prospects in their home country.

- b. Relevance of the course to the student's past or proposed future employment either in their home country or a third country.

- c. Remuneration the applicant could expect to receive in the home country or a third country, compared with Australia, using the qualifications to be gained from the proposed course of study.

3. THE APPLICANT'S IMMIGRATION HISTORY:

An applicant's immigration history refers both to their visa and travel history. In considering the applicant's immigration history, You MUST consider the following factors:

Previous visa applications for Australia or other countries, including:

- a. If the applicant previously applied for an Australian temporary or permanent visa, whether those visa applications are yet to be finally determined (within the meaning of subsection 5(9) of the Act), were granted, or grounds on which they were refused.

- b. If the applicant has previously applied for visas to other countries, whether they were refused a visa and the circumstances that led to visa refusal.

Previous travels to Australia or other countries, including:

- a. If the applicant previously travelled to Australia, whether they complied with the conditions of their visa and left before their visa ceased, and if not, were there circumstances beyond their control.

- b. Whether the applicant previously held a visa that was cancelled or considered for cancellation, and the associated circumstances.

- c. The amount of time the applicant has spent in Australia and whether the Student visa may be used primarily for maintaining ongoing residence, including whether the applicant has undertaken a series of short, inexpensive courses, or has been onshore for some time without successfully completing a qualification.

- d. If the applicant has travelled to countries other than Australia, whether they complied with the immigration laws of that country and the circumstances around any non-compliance.
